

NEWS AND NOTES

Welcome! We are so glad you have come to worship GOD with us today. We pray your time spent with us will be encouraging, inspiring and edifying. Please sign our guest register and help yourselves to the free literature provided. Don't forget to silence your cell phone when you are seated. If you need to go out during services, there is a closed circuit TV in the library in the basement where you can follow the worship in the auditorium.

Serving the congregation will be Chris Chambers, Bob Huskey, Warner King, and Woody Luna. David Barton will extend the invitation on Wednesday evening and Woody Luna will lead the singing. Rod Rutherford is in charge of building security for October.

Daily Bible Reading: Remember to read two chapters each day, Monday through Saturday. Use Sunday to catch up or do extra study. Tomorrow's reading is Ezekiel 35 and 36.

Business Meeting: All the men of the congregation are requested to come this afternoon at 4 PM. We need your input as we plan the Lord's work in our community.

Food Pantry: We have helped a number of people lately and the pantry needs to be replenished. Items needed this week are canned tuna and canned meats.

Records: Last Lord's Day, 30 attended Bible classes, 80 the morning worship assembly and 30 came for the evening service. The contribution was $1282. For Midweek Bible Study, 44 were present.

Remember in Prayer: We are thankful that Mae Chambers received a good report from her eye doctor. Ruth King continues her exercise program prior to vein surgery. Sammy Henry, brother of Tommy Henry, our neighbor across the street from the building, has suffered a massive stroke and is in UT Medical Center in Knoxville. Eli Williams seems to be doing as well as can be expected. He is able to live at home now but must make periodic trips to St. Jude Hospital in Memphis for tests. Our ongoing prayer list include Lorie Proffitt, Jim Tittle, Joshua Stokes, Elisa Luna, Connie Jones, Jerry Boone, Guy Noe, and Ryan Kitchens. Please remember to pray for our missionaries: Brett Rutherford family and Tim and Lynn Wilkes. Don't forget Andrew Gott whom we support in school as he prepares to preach. Also pray for Happy Haven Children's Home. Please include in your prayers the success of our outreach efforts by radio, television, the internet and the printed page. Pray for the safety of our brave men and women in uniform. Our leaders at every level of government also need our prayers (1 Tim. 2:1,2). Remember to thank GOD continually for His abundant blessings.

Our Gospel Meeting! It is less than three weeks away. Gary and Theresa Hampton are a wonderful couple. You will enjoy getting to know them. Gary is an outstanding preacher of the Gospel and will preach encouraging, informative and uplifting sermons. Pray for the success of the meeting and begin working for it by inviting your friends. Flyers are available in the foyer. The meeting is also advertised on the back of the last issue of House to House which is also available.

Area Events: Gospel meetings begin today at Newport with Dan Cates and at Greenback with David Lipe. There will be a Ladies Day at Karns on Oct. 13. See the bulletin board for details.
